Dear Wine Lovers,

Bordeaux 2000 & 2005 are two of the greatest vintages. According to Wine Spectator, 2000 was rated 99 and 97 for left and right bank, while 2005 was rated 98 and 97 for left and right bank. The wines from these two vintages have extremely high quality and with great investment value. We have found these AFFORDABLE magnificent wines for your selection.

2000 Left Bank: 99, Racy tannins and very delineated reds now hitting their stride.

2000 Right Bank: 97, Rich, powerful and structured, yet harmonious. Wines starting to open up now.

2005 Left Bank: 98, Fabulous aromas and great length; wines with depth, structure and finesse.

2005 Right Bank: 97, Opulent and powerful, with solid backbones of tannins and acidity. Amazing Pomerols.

TABLAS CREEK Esprit de Beaucastel Rouge 2008

California, USA ~~$580~~ $270/btl

Tablas Creek Vineyard was founded by the Perrin family of Chateau de Beaucastel, and Robert Haas, founder of Vineyard Brands in 1987. The winery is located at Paso Robles in California, midway between Santa Barbara and Monterey and named after the small creek running through the property. The partners imported the traditional varietals grown on the Perrins' celebrated estate, and follow the centuries-old Chateauneuf du Pape tradition of blending chosen varietals. Each varietal is hand-harvested when completely ripe and fermented separately and all Tablas Creek wines are estate grown and organically farmed on the vineyard. The vineyard's signature wines, Esprit de Beaucastel and Esprit de Beaucastel Blanc are blended for richness, balance, and ageability.

RP 94: "The 2008 Esprit de Beaucastel flows with sweet dark cherries, flowers, tobacco and spices. It is a beautiful, classically built wine graced with striking inner perfume, lovely mid-palate juiciness and a round, utterly harmonious finish. Well-integrated, silky tannins linger on the close. This is a fabulous wine from Tablas Creek. My sense is that the wine should be tasted upon release and then again only after a number of years in bottle. In 2008 the blend is 38% Mourvedre, 30% Grenache, 26% Syrah and 6% Counoise. Anticipated maturity: 2018-2028. " WS 90: "Offers a complex array of ripe cherry, wild berry and plum, with touches of mineral, presented in a supple, elegant, well-integrated style, with dark red berry flavors forming the core. Drink now through 2020."
