

Best of Bordeaux: Pauillac

Pauillac is possibly the most famous of all the Bordeaux wine producing appellations. Pauillac has fine, deep gravel soils with important iron and marl deposits, and a subtle, softly rolling landscape, cut by a series of small streams running to the Gironde. The vineyards are located on two gravel-rich plateaux, one to the northwest of the town of Pauillac and the other to the southeast, with the vines reaching a greater depth than found anywhere else in the Médoc. Wineworld brings you these premium Pauillac wines. Limited stock, please act fast!

Château Lynch Bages, a 5ème Cru Classé, is one of the best-known Médoc estates and has always had a particularly strong following on this side of the English Channel. Lynch Bages can be surprisingly soft and approachable when young. However, when fully mature, it develops a succulent richness and a heavenly bouquet of minty blackcurrants and cigar boxes. As Oz Clarke says "Lynch Bages is impressive at five years, beautiful at ten years and irresistible at twenty."

CHATEAU PICHON LONGUEVILLE COMTESSE DE LALANDE

Château Pichon-Longueville Lalande is one of the most important Super Seconds and this 2ème Cru Classé Pauillac estate has made tremendous strides in the last 20 years. Pichon-Longueville Lalande is not as powerful or as tannic as some its Pauillac neighbours and this is mainly because of its relatively high Merlot content. In the best years, it is one of the most exotic and voluptuously scented wines of the Médoc.

Château Pichon-Longueville Baron, a leading Pauillac 2ème Cru Classé estate, is one of Bordeaux's most illustrious Super Seconds. The best examples of Pichon-Longueville Baron have layer upon layer of unctuous, vanilla-scented, blackcurrant and cassis fruit, intermingled with cigar box and lead pencil shavings aromas. They require cellaring for at least 10 years.

Fritz Haag Brauneberger Riesling Kabinett 2012

Mosel, Germany ~~$290~~ $230/btl

The Fritz Haag vineyard lies at the core of the middle Mosel and looks back on a long history: it was first mentioned in records in 1605 when the village was still called Dusemond. In order to promote the reputation of the world famous vineyard locations of "Brauneberger Juffer" and "Brauneberger Juffer Sonnenuhr" even more – even Napoleon counted them amongst the pearls of the Mosel region - Dusemond was renamed Brauneberg in 1925. According to tradition, the 12.2 ha Fritz Haag vineyard, now headed by Oliver Haag, is also known by the name of "Dusemonder Hof".

WS 92: "Offers a smoky aroma, with rich and expressive flavors of ripe peach, melon and lemon curd, accented by creamy notes. The mouthfilling finish is long, showing hints of honey and anise. Drink now through 2022. "
