Domaine Roche Cotes du Rhone Villages Cairanne 2012

Robert Parker 90 points: “A sexy wine made under the auspices of globe-trotting oenologist Philippe Cambie, this 2012 Cotes du Rhone-Villages Cairanne was produced from 40 to 105-year-old vines. The blend was 70% Grenache (aged in concrete) and 30% Syrah (aged in barrique) from yields of 20 to 30 hectoliters per hectare. It exhibits a delicious, up-front, front end-loaded, richly fruity style with lots of raspberry, black cherry, roasted herb, loamy soil and underbrush notes. This corpulent, fleshy red can be enjoyed over the next 4-5 years.”
