MACALLAN

100pts

@ Beverage
Testing
Institute 1999

Macallan 25 Year Sherry Oak

Nose: Very fruity, with notes of orange and pear on the nose. Also has a good dollop of sweet spices which develop into an almost smoky character. The sherry on the nose is refined and well balanced, with hints of honey and caramel.

Palate: Textbook malt delivery which gives way to a mouthful of dried apricots, prunes and figs. Hints of nutmeg and cinnamon weave in and out of an epic whack of honey that only a Speyside distillery of this kind of nobility can produce.

Finish: A long, full finish that carries fig, spices, chewy oak and a touch of light smoke.

Special: $9,800

The Macallan 1985 Private Cask Selection

Bottled in 2004 (Individual Box)

A touch of smoke, cinnamon and ground spices. Dry, medium-full bodied with an intensity of mouth filling, slightly smoky sherry fruits, earth and dried fruit notes. Lovely depth with spicy orange fruit coming through on the finish.

Special: $3,800

JAPAN WHISKY

Story of Taketsuru...

Taketsuru is found by Masataka Taketsuru (竹鶴 政孝, 1894–1979). He was born in 1894 in Takehara, Hiroshima to a family that had owned a sake brewery since 1733. He studied organic chemistry at the University of Glasgow in Scotland. He also worked at a number of Scottish distilleries like Longmorn. After returning to Japan, Taketsuru worked at Kotobukiya, which would later become Suntory, where he helped establish a whisky distillery. In 1934 he founded his own distilling company, Dai Nippon Kaju K.K., in Yoichi on the northern Japanese island of Hokkaidō. He believed that this part of Japan was the most similar to Scotland. He later renamed the company Nikka. Nikka whisky was first sold in October 1940. It is no doubt that Masataka Taketsuru is the Father of Japan Whisky.
