

Bordeaux En Primeur 2015

“Bordeaux 2015 - Nature Gives a High Five” - Neal Martin 4/29/2016

“The 2015 Bordeaux vintage sprung flashes of brilliance and potentially profound wines, entire appellations that upped their game, while others had victory snatched from their hands. The general level of quality is high, however, this is not a vintage of averages. It is an undulating landscape of highs and yes, the occasional low.” - Neal Martin

“The vintage was extremely exciting, remarking that the wines showed exuberant fruit whilst possessing plenty of tannin backbone. In particular singling out Merlot-based wines which he believed were of amazing quality.” - James Suckling

Special Highlights:

Beychevelle 2015

Niel Martin 92-94: "The 2015 Beychevelle was picked between 22 September and 8 October, a blend of 42% Cabernet Sauvignon, 47% Merlot, 7% Cabernet Franc and 4% Petit Verdot that will be matured in 50% new oak. It has quite a high IPT at 81, a pH of 3.72. It has a clean and crisp bouquet, tightly-wound at first, then unfurls with redcurrant, cranberry and raspberry scents, leaning towards the red spectrum rather than black. There is impressive delineation here, no frills, almost clinical in its "aromatic efficiency." The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin. This is a suave Beychevelle in the making, harmonious in the mouth, supple even, gently building towards a lightly spiced finish. Among the Saint Julien wines, this is clearly one of the more understated 2015s. It is only when you swallow the wine that its lingering flavors remind you that this could evolve into one of Philippe Blanc's great Beychevelles. While it is not a headline-grabbing wine, a decade in bottle will be handsomely rewarded."

D'armailhac 2015

James Suckling 92-93: "A refined and pretty red with plum, blackberry and black cherry aromas and flavors. Full to medium body, fine tannins. Exuberant."

Doisy Daëne 2015

Niel Martin 95-97: "The 2015 Doisy-Daëne has a detailed bouquet, very correct, nothing showy or flamboyant as is typical of Denis Dubourdieu's Barsac. The palate is extremely well balanced and very pure: citrus fruit infusing the honeyed botrytis, veins of white peach and quince, leading to a very precise and sustained finish that leaves you with a smile on your face...and the wine ain't even finished yet! Just a wonderful wine - full of class and nascent joie-de-vivre. Chapeau Denis!"

Larrivet Haut Brion Blanc 2015

James Suckling 93-94: "The change here is impressive with bright and vivid aromas and flavors of tropical fruits, stones, and minerals. Underlying energy and intensity in this white. Full and flavorful."

Wine Advocate 95-97: "The 2015 Larrivet Haut Brion Blanc, a blend of 80% Sauvignon Blanc and 20% Semillon, did not quite deliver the requisite complexity and vivacity on the nose compared to the likes of La Tour Martillac or Olivier this year. The palate is well balanced, however, with a keen thread of acidity, hints of tropical fruit with fine salinity on the finish. It actually finishes in better fashion than it begins."

Malescot Saint Exupery 2015

Wine Advocate 93-95: "The 2015 Malescot-St-Exupery has an intriguing and complex bouquet with oyster shells and seaweed infusing the intense black fruit. It is certainly well defined with nicely integrated new oak. The palate is medium-bodied with crisp tannin, a keen thread of acidity, very pure and smooth in texture, gently unfolding towards the lightly spiced finish that lingers long in the mouth. This is a superb Margaux, surfeit with breeding and sophistication, though it will need 10-15 years in bottle"
