Coche Dury Meursault 2002 / 2006 / 2010 / 2014

Vintage 2002

Burghound 91: "An interesting mix of perfumed and classic Meursault aromas, smoke and a curious hint of scented soap (no, it was not from the glass as they were meticulously checked before the tasting). The medium-bodied and beautifully well-detailed flavors exhibit really lovely intensity and good verve before culminating in a rich, round and delicious finish. There is ample mid-palate sap and outstanding depth and this has arrived at that perfect inflection point where it could be drunk now or held for another year or two first. Either way, this is a stunningly good villages. Tasted several times recently with largely consistent notes."

Vintage 2006

Burghound 90 (outstanding): "An expressive and attractively layered nose of citrus, yellow orchard fruits and a hint of roasted nuts trimmed in a note of subtle wood toast that is also picked up by the rich, full and generous flavors that possess a seductively textured and balanced finish that delivers fine intensity and impressive persistence for a villages level wine. Recommended."

Vintage 2010

Burghound 90 (outstanding): "Here there is a completely different aromatic profile with its hazelnut, grilled almond, acacia blossom and yellow orchard fruit scents. There is excellent volume to the somewhat more generously proportioned flavors that are not quite as refined though I very much like the mineral character on the lemony, bone dry and borderline strict finish. This linear effort will definitely need time to unwind and flesh out on the finale."
