

J. De Telmont Heritage Collection

A taste of 100% Pinot Meunier made by Rene Collard, Godfather of Pinot Meunier

If you are a fan of Dom Perignon's Plenitude and Oenotheque series, J. de Telmont's Heritage Collection is a great value alternative of the former. And - surprise - the Champagne House did NOT make these champagnes themselves.

Instead - the Heritage Collection is, literally, a wine collection acquired by the Lhopital family, who own and run J. De Telmont since 1912. Way back in late 80s or early 90s, J. de Telmont took over a good handful of undisgorged champagne from Rene Collard - the Godfather of Pinot Meunier - when Collard gave up his winery. These Collard bottles contain rare vintage expressions going all the way back to 1969, and as expected are all 100% Pinot Meunier.

The Lhopital family kept these bottles well, giving them additional 20 years of further bottle ageing on lees, before disgorging them in 2014-5. These hidden gems are now gradually released - fans of rare and unique champagnes, these are not to be missed as these are historic bottles, with each additional bottle drunk, there will then be one less on this planet!

Ex chateau from the house of J. De Telmont

J. de Telmont Héritage Brut 1969

Deep gold colour, and a good long lasting mousse with very small bubbles. The initial nose reveals aromas of plums and eau-de-vie fruits, then developing into chocolate notes. The mouth has moka and chocolate notes with a hint of dried fruits such as hazelnut and walnut. Good length, rich and fresh.

A taste of J. De Telmont by Telmont?

As much as we are thankful towards the Lhopital family of Telmont for sharing these stunning back vintage hidden gems, let's indulge ourselves equally with the quality production from J. de Telmont. Consistently the top 20 most important Champagne Houses in France, Telmont is a staunch believer in biodynamism. Now run by its fourth generation, Telmont continues the spirit of its visionary founder Henry Llophital - to be both a great vine grower and a respectable champagne maker.

J. de Telmont Cuvée Grand Couronnement Blanc de Blancs Millesime 2002

Made exclusively from Chardonnay grapes in the superb year 2002, this exceptional cuvee was obtained from the best Côte des Blancs Grands Crus Villages. This cuvee aged a minimum of 10 years in the cellars... This is the "Grand Couronnement"!

To be enjoyed as an aperitif and during a special meal and romantic interludes.
