Kilikanoon Killerman's Run Cabernet Sauvignon 2012

Australia, Clare Valley ~~¥230~~ $180/btl

"This is one of the most brilliantly run wineries in Australia" from Robert Parker Jnr's Wine Advocate, who has regularly scored Kilikanoon's wines up to 98 points, and the coveted 5 red stars from James Halliday's authoritative Australian Wine Companion. These, as well as international awards such as Best Shiraz (worldwide) at the 2008 International Wine Challenge for Kilikanoon's Oracle Shiraz helped Kilikanoon to spread its wings rather more quickly than may be expected from a young winery. This winery has been awarded 2013 Winery of the Year by James Halliday with 17 wines scoring above 92 points.

JH 93: The Clare Valley doesn't always come up with the right answers with cabernet sauvignon, but in this vintage did so in spades. The wine is full-bodied, with a classic array of black fruits and savoury/earthy tannins to provide texture and structure; the oak handling has also been spot on." RP 89: "Deep garnet-purple colored and scented of crushed blackcurrants, black plums and cloves with touches of dried mint and chocolate, the medium-bodied 2012 Killerman's Run Cabernet Sauvignon gives a good intensity of ripe black fruit and minty flavors, a medium level of grainy tannins and a lively acid backbone before it finishes medium to long. Drink it now to 2017.
